Dance Class May Fail in Ellinwood Without Boys

By JANET ROBINSON

Square dancers, attention! There will be one more meeting today at the Newton Square Dance Club and if more boys don't turn out they will have to call classes off for the summer. Dr. Dellan feels that he and Mr. Boudeau should have a class large enough to make it worth their efforts and time. So come on boys—turn out. Everyone from the fourth grade up is eligible to join. There will be refreshments served. It starts at 6 p.m. in school cafeteria. Of course girls are invited, too.

Ann Costello and her daughter Carol recently returned from a month's vacation in the Midwest. They first traveled to St. Louis by air where they were met by Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Fraelle, and taken to their home in Gillespie, about an hour from St. Louis. Ann and Carol spent two weeks there before flying on to Chicago where they visited Ann's sister, Mary Fraelle, in Oak Park, and her brother, James, of Hinsdale. They also visited Ann's mother and father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Costello, of Berwyn, another Chicago suburb. Then back to Ann's parents for another week before returning to Torrance. The trip back was rather rough.

Mary Ann and Earl Freeland of Riviera Way gave a shower for Earl's life-long friend, Keith Bohne, and his bride, Pat Guenthard, of Inglewood. Keith made his home with the Freelands until his marriage last Saturday. The shower was held for couples on July 7. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. George Fannon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Woodbridge and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Guenthard. The new bride and groom are now honeymooning at Lake Tahoe and will make their home in the neighboring Torrance View Estates as soon as their home is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Melia have house guests this week. Muriel's father and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. Edgar Williams, Mrs. Williams arrived Monday night by plane via Chicago where she has been visiting, and Mr. Williams will come in Saturday directly from his home in Miami, Fla. for a visit with daughter Muriel and son, Dick, also a resident of Ellinwood.
